As educators, it's crucial that we stand up for public education and its students—and it's equally as crucial we seek to elect Congressional representatives who will stand up for us.

Rep. Josh Gottheimer is a champion of New Jersey's public schools, as well as their students and school employees, and he deserves re-election. You can help make it happen...without even leaving your house!

Attend an upcoming virtual phone bank event and help spread the word...New Jersey's educators are Team Josh! Simply visit https://www.openvpb.com/vpb_by_code/416E45L-611292 to get started.
